

Audio Transcript of Jean Peré and Adrien Jolliet 1669

Audio Transcript: In 1669, the Intendant of New France, Jean Talon, sent Peré and Jolliet "to go and reconnoitre to see whether the copper mine situated to the north of Lake Ontario... is rich and of easy extraction." Beginning from Sault Ste. Marie they explored the eastern shoreline of Lake Superior where they found many more mines.

Figure 1: Sketch of Montreal 1680 to 1690.

Source: Voiceovers by Kyle Rawn, Christian Wyss and LeeAnn McLellan, Algonquin College, Ottawa. Assistance provided by Don Crockford, Coordinator, Broadcasting Radio and Media Design Sector, Algonquin College.